

DE-7/2024/P2

DEPARTMENTAL EXAMINATION FOR JUNIOR MEMBERS
OF I. A. S., JUNIOR MEMBERS OF I. P. S. AND JUNIOR
MEMBERS OF I. F. S. — JANUARY, 2024

SPECIAL AND LOCAL LAWS

[with books]

[Duration : 3 hours

(Maximum marks : 100)

Marks

1. Explain the following with relevant provisions of law. Answers do not exceed 60 words.
  - (a) Examine the scope of the Kerala Prevention of Disturbances of Public Meetings Act, 1961.
  - (b) Who is competent to pass an order of detention under Prevention of Begging Act, 1945 ?
  - (c) What are the procedures for arrest without warrant under Abkari Act 1077 ?
  - (d) Examine the general duties of an officer under Travancore-Cochin Prisons Act 1950 ?
  - (e) What are the statutory requirements for the transportation of coffee under the Act ? (5×3=15)

(Maximum 60 words)
2. Whether a police officer can arrest an inmate, who escapes from borstal school, without warrant ? Who is empowered to control all functions and duties of a Borstal School ? 5

(Maximum 80 words)
3. Is the sale of Lime shell restricted in Kerala ? What are the relevant provisions under the Act ? 5

(Maximum 80 words)
4. Define the term “gift goods”. What is meant by “relief organisation” ? 5

(Maximum 80 words)
5. What is the object of Hackney Carriage Act ? Explain the statutory provision which regulate the distance covered by a Hackney driver ? 5

(Maximum 80 words)
6. Examine the power of a police officer to protect the private and public property against destructions caused by cattle. 10

(Maximum 200 words)

7. Define the term “objectionable performance”. What are the punishments for violation of objectionable performance order ? 10
(Maximum 200 words)
  8. How far the present law protect and preserve wild elephants in Kerala. 10
(Maximum 200 words)
  9. Who is empowered to direct corrective training to a habitual offender ? 10
(Maximum 200 words)
  10. Explain the right of the government to acquire forest land not being the property of government. 10
(Maximum 200 words)
  11. Examine in detail the Executive Powers and Duties of the Police. 15
(Maximum 250 words)
-